

Job Description – FOREMAN, SEWER & WATER

We are currently seeking an experienced Foreman, Sewer and Water to help in our continued growth and success.

We offer competitive salaries, RRSP, company vehicle, and group benefits.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Accomplishes work requirements by orienting, training, assigning, scheduling, and coaching employees; and supervising sub-contractors.
- Delegating tasks to team members and holding them accountable
- Meets construction work standards by following production, quality, and customer-service standards; resolving operational problems; identifying work process improvements.
- Assist Superintendent in creating short-term schedules, and monitors such schedules
- Plans construction projects by studying technical specifications and drawing; ordering and scheduling materials and equipment.
- Inspecting work in progress to ensure that work conforms to specifications
- Accomplishes organization goals by accepting shared ownership and responsibility for each project; and exploring opportunities to add value to each project
- Represent company in meetings with clients, contractors, inspectors, etc. as required.
- Participation in daily and weekly update meetings
- Support maintenance of accurate As-Built drawings
- Evaluate worker's abilities
- Maintain an exemplary safety record; knowledge of safety procedures; and knowledgeable of the hazards specific to each job.
- Establish and maintain a professional working relationship with team members, architects, engineers, subcontractors and suppliers.
- Generating daily work sheets with cost codes and recording quantities
- Maintains technical knowledge by attending educational workshops; reviewing technical publications; becoming aware of state-of-the-art practices.

Required Skills & Qualifications

- Minimum 3 years of experience as a Sewer and Water Foreman in heavy civil construction
- Ability to work unsupervised and lead work crews
- Ability to work out of town if and when required
- Coordination with subcontractors, suppliers and owners
- Familiarity with MTO contracts and OPSS specs

Louis W Bray Construction encourages applications from all qualified candidates. Please contact Human Resources if you need accommodation at any stage of the application process.

Job Types: Full-time, Permanent

Salary: $31.00-$38.00 per hour

COVID-19 considerations:

All job sites have comprehensive COVID - 19 protocols in place to ensure Health and Safety of all employees.

Working the Bray Way